Spring is here and new life is stirring. There is so much for Big Bear to teach her baby cub as they leave their den and step out into the forest. Together they eat, swim, fish, and play. As the seasons change, Little One grows more and more confident, until winter comes once more and it's time to head home.

With gentle text and stunning black and white illustrations, Jo Weaver reveals the wonder of nature, the first steps of independence, and the strength of parental love.

Big Bear stepped out of her winter den.

By her side, half asleep and blinking in the spring sunshine, wobbled a tiny cub.

“There’s so much to discover in your new world,
Little One,” said Big Bear.

For Mum and Dad,
who read to me then...
and for Dom,
who reads to me now
