ABOUT THE SERIES

Fred Bowen's fast-paced middle-grade stories offer readers themes of competition, cooperation, facing change, gender roles, overcoming challenges, and new experiences. In addition, they feature play-by-play action, snappy dialogue, and engaging plots. Bowen's books are not the usual sports-fiction fare; each book loops in a little sports history and includes back matter with fascinating glimpses into that history and the heroes who made it happen.

ABOUT THE BOOK

Chris needs help with his basketball game. He's spending too much time on the bench. He turns to his friend Greta—the star forward on the girls' team—for some shooting lessons. But even her expert tips can't make Chris's shots go in. Then he gets some interesting advice from a very unlikely source. But can that advice work for Chris?

DIRECTIONS

Use details from the text to support ALL of your responses.

CHAPTERS 1–3

Who is a better basketball player, Greta or Chris? How do you know? What does the chart in chapter 3 tell you about Chris as a shooter? Who is the best shooter on the team according to the chart? Who is the second best shooter? Compare Jason's attitude about basketball to Chris's attitude about basketball.

CHAPTERS 4–6

How does Chris feel about being stuck on the Eagles' bench? How does Jason feel? How are their feelings different? How does the author make sure you understand that Greta is a great player? List some of her basketball skills. How does Greta feel about teaching Chris to shoot? How can you tell?

CHAPTERS 7–9

Compare and contrast Greta's mom (Mimi) in chapter 7 to Chris's mom in chapter 2. What are some of the differences between girls 6-on-6 basketball as played in Iowa and the game boys play? How can you tell what Greta thinks about her mom's basketball career? What are Mimi's instructions about playing defense? List them.

CHAPTERS 10–12

What does the race in chapter 10 tell you about Chris and Greta's personalities? How is Chris changing? How can you tell that Coach Anderson is beginning to notice Chris? Why is he beginning to notice him? How does the game in chapter 12 emphasize the importance of defense?

CHAPTERS 13–15

Compare Chris’s sister Anna’s role on her volleyball team to Chris’s role on his basketball team. Do you think Chris and Anna like each other? What makes you think they do or don’t? How does Chris feel after the game against the Wildcats? How has the relationship between Chris and Greta changed since the beginning of the book?
