

WANTED

JANE ADDAMS THE MOST DANGEROUS WOMAN IN AMERICA

Wanted for serving as president of the Woman's Peace Party, leading the International Congress of Women, sharing peace resolutions with fourteen warring European countries, raising money to send food to starving children, and founding the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom.

DESCRIPTION:

Place of Birth: Cedarville, IL

Occupation: Peace activist

Remarks: Hull House founder, first American woman to win the Nobel Peace Prize

#BeDangerous

How are you going to change the world today?

Dangerous Jane

Written by Suzanne Slade / Illustrated by Alice Ratterree

HC: $17.95 / 978-1-56145-913-1

September 2017

PEACHTREE PUBLISHERS

Rooted in relationships. Grown with care.

www.peachtree-online.com