Rapunzel lives all alone in a tall, dark tower. Under the threat of a witch's fearsome curse, the poor girl seems doomed to a life in captivity. But is Rapunzel frightened? Oh no, not she!

With irreverent humor and striking illustrations, the creator of LITTLE RED puts an empowering and delightfully dark twist on a classic story of a helpless damsel.

Rapunzel lived all alone in a tall, dark tower.
She was trapped there by a witch, who visited every day.

“Rapunzel, Rapunzel, let down your hair!” the witch would call.

And then up Rapunzel’s hair she climbed,
because that was the only way into the tower.

Every day, the witch brushed Rapunzel's hair, swish, swish.

Then

SNIP, SNIP,

she stole some golden locks to sell for riches.
