

King & Kayla

and the Case of the Gold Ring

Written by Dori Hillestad Butler

Illustrated by Nancy Meyers

Theodor Seuss Geisel Honor Award-winning creators

Chapter One

Playing in the Snow

Hello!

My name is King. I'm a dog. This is Kayla. She is my human.

Kayla, Mason, and I are playing in the snow. I LOVE the snow. It's my favorite thing!

“Hey, everyone!” says a girl at the fence. “Come see what I have!”

It’s Asia! I haven’t seen her in eleventy-five days!

Guess what? She's got liver treats! I LOVE liver treats. They're my favorite food!

"King! No jump," Kayla says.

“What do you have, Asia?” Mason asks.

“She has liver treats,” I say. “I don’t see them, but I smell them.”

Asia takes off her glove. “A gold ring,” she says. “It’s very special because it was my grandma’s when she was my age.”

